Subject: Annual Exhibition cum Sale

We are delighted to announce that Tulsi College of Fashion Design will be organizing its Annual Exhibition cum Sale in the month of March 2022 on the occasion of Women's Day. This year's theme is "Tulsi Pallets." The event aims to promote the creative skills of our students by showcasing their handmade products and empowering them through the sale of these items.

Event Details:

- Date: 8th & 9th March 2022
- Time: 11:00 AM
- Venue: Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed
- Guest: Mrs. Meena Tupe (PSI, Beed)

We invite all students, faculty, and guests to join us in celebrating the creativity and entrepreneurial spirit of our students.

Objectives:

1. To promote students' creative skills by providing a platform to showcase their handmade products.
2. To empower students through the experience of selling their products and engaging with customers.
3. To encourage entrepreneurial skills among students.
4. To foster a sense of achievement and confidence in students by displaying and selling their creations.

Event Report

Event Report: Annual Exhibition cum Sale

Date: 8th & 9th March 2022

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed

Guest: Mrs. Meena Tupe (PSI, Beed)

The Annual Exhibition cum Sale at Tulsi College of Fashion Design was held on 8th and 9th March 2022, in celebration of Women's Day with the theme "Tulsi Pallets." The event aimed to promote the creative skills of students and empower them by providing an opportunity to display and sell their handmade products.

Objectives of the Event:

- 1. Promotion of Creative Skills: The exhibition provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity and talent in designing and crafting various products. The displayed items included handmade garments, accessories, home decor items, and art pieces, all created by the students.
- 2. Empowerment Through Sales: By participating in the sale of their products, students gained valuable experience in entrepreneurship. This not only helped them understand market dynamics but also boosted their confidence in their abilities to create and sell products.
- 3. Encouraging Entrepreneurial Skills: The event encouraged students to develop and enhance their entrepreneurial skills. They learned how to price their products, engage with customers, and manage sales, thereby gaining practical business experience.
- 4. Building Confidence: The exhibition served as a platform for students to receive recognition and appreciation for their hard work. This recognition helped build their confidence and motivated them to pursue their creative endeavors further.

Event Highlights:

- The event was graced by Mrs. Meena Tupe, PSI of Beed, who praised the students' creativity and the quality of their work.
- Mrs. Tupe shared her experiences and inspired the students with her insights on empowerment and self-reliance.
- The exhibition attracted a large number of visitors, including parents, faculty, and local residents, who were impressed by the creativity and craftsmanship of the students.
- The students successfully sold a significant number of their products, generating substantial revenue and gaining practical experience in sales and customer interaction.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the event coordinator, who expressed gratitude to the guest, participants, and everyone involved in making the event a success.

Conclusion:

The Annual Exhibition cum Sale at Tulsi College of Fashion Design was a resounding success. It achieved its objectives of promoting students' creative skills, empowering them through sales, encouraging entrepreneurial skills, and building their confidence. The event provided a valuable learning experience for the students and showcased the immense talent and potential of the future designers of Tulsi College.

Report on Sports Week Celebration

17th to 22nd January 2022

Introduction

Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed, holds an annual Sports Week from 1st to 6th January, aimed at promoting physical fitness, teamwork, and a spirit of healthy competition among students. This event is a cornerstone of the college's extracurricular activities, focusing on outdoor games specifically designed for girls. Each day is dedicated to a different outdoor game, encouraging participation and fostering a sense of community.

Day 1: Athletics (Track and Field Events)

Date: 17th January

The Sports Week began with Athletics, featuring various track and field events such as sprints, long-distance running, high jump, long jump, and shot put. These events were designed to test the endurance, speed, and agility of the participants. The day was filled with energy and excitement as students competed in different categories, showcasing their athletic abilities.

Winner: Dolas Tulsabai

Runner Up: Gaikwad Pramila

Day 2: Volleyball Tournament

Date: 18th January

The second day featured a Volleyball Tournament, a popular team sport that requires coordination and teamwork. Matches were conducted in a round-robin format, ensuring each team had multiple opportunities to play. The enthusiastic participation and the cheering from fellow students created a lively atmosphere, highlighting the competitive spirit and sportsmanship of the players.

Winner: Nirmal kirti

Runner Up: Kundare Sapana

Day 3: Kabaddi Matches

Date: 19th January

On the third day, the focus shifted to Kabaddi, a traditional Indian sport that combines strength, strategy, and agility. This event saw high participation, with students forming teams and engaging in intense matches. The matches were organized in knockout rounds, leading to exciting semifinals and finals. The players exhibited remarkable skills and resilience, making it a memorable day.

Winner: Abgad Priya

Runner Up: Kamble Laxmi

Day 4: Badminton Championship

Date: 20th January

The fourth day was dedicated to the Badminton Championship, held outdoors. This event included both singles and doubles matches, allowing students to showcase their skills in different formats. The matches were conducted on specially arranged courts, and the finals drew a large crowd of enthusiastic supporters, adding to the competitive atmosphere.

Winner: Sonwane Ashvini

Runner Up: Sasane Varsha

Day 5: Throwball Competition

Date: 21st January

Throwball, a popular sport among girls, was the highlight of the fifth day. This game, similar to volleyball but with different rules, encouraged participation and teamwork. The competition was organized in a league format, with teams competing against each other in a series of matches. The energy and excitement of the participants were palpable, making it a day filled with fun and camaraderie.

Day 6: Football Matches

Date: 22nd January

The Sports Week concluded with Football matches, a sport that combines physical fitness, strategy, and teamwork. The event included multiple matches, allowing various teams to compete. The final matches were particularly exciting, with students displaying remarkable skills and teamwork. The day ended on a high note, with participants and spectators alike enjoying the thrilling games.

Winner: Dhurandhare Pratiksha

Runner Up: Gaikwad Panchshila

Closing Ceremony

The Sports Week concluded with a grand closing ceremony, where the efforts and achievements of all participants were celebrated. Trophies, medals, and certificates were awarded to the winning teams and standout performers. The Principal, Mrs. Ashwini Jadhav, delivered an inspiring speech, congratulating the participants and emphasizing the importance of sports in fostering physical fitness, teamwork, and leadership skills.

Conclusion

The Sports Week at Tulsi College of Fashion Design was a resounding success, providing a platform for students to showcase their athletic talents and fostering a spirit of healthy competition. The event underscored the college's commitment to holistic education, where physical activities are given as much importance as academic pursuits. The enthusiastic participation and the high level of competition demonstrated by the students were truly commendable, making the Sports Week a highlight of the college's annual calendar.

Report on Sports Week Celebration 1st to 6th August 2022

Introduction

Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed, organized a Sports Week from 1st to 6th August, aiming to promote physical fitness, teamwork, and a spirit of healthy competition among students. Each day was dedicated to a different indoor game, fostering enthusiasm and participation from students and staff alike.

Day 1: Chess Tournament

Date: 1st August

The week commenced with a Chess Tournament, a game that requires strategic thinking and concentration. Participants displayed impressive skills, making it an intense competition. The matches were held in a knockout format, culminating in a final round between the top two players. The winners were awarded medals and certificates.

- Winner: Admane Swati
- Runner-Up: Pooja Alzende

Day 2: Table Tennis Championship

Date: 2nd August

The second day featured a Table Tennis Championship, engaging students in fast-paced and exciting matches. The event saw high participation, with students showcasing agility and quick reflexes. The games were organized in singles format, and the finals were a thrilling display of talent.

- Winner: Seema Shelke
- Runner-Up: Waghmare Rutuja

Day 3: Carrom Competition

Date: 3rd August

On the third day, students participated in the Carrom Competition, a game of precision and strategy. The matches were conducted in pairs, promoting teamwork and coordination. The finals were closely contested, with the winners emerging after a nail-biting finish.

- Winning Team: Tulsi Dolas
- Runner-Up Team: Jadhav Komal

Activities

1. Fashion Show: "Fusion of Cultures"

The highlight of the evening was a captivating fashion show titled "Fusion of Cultures." Senior students, along with the freshers, showcased their creativity and design skills by presenting outfits that combined traditional and modern elements from different cultures. The ramp walk was accompanied by a narrative explaining the inspiration behind each outfit, emphasizing the importance of cultural appreciation and innovation in fashion design.

2. Talent Hunt: "Show Your Spark"

A talent hunt was organized where freshers were encouraged to showcase their unique talents. Participants mesmerized the audience with their singing, dancing, poetry, and instrumental performances. This activity not only provided a platform for the freshers to display their skills but also helped them overcome stage fright and build confidence.

3. Ethnic Dance Performances: "Dance Through the Ages"

The cultural essence of the college was brought to life through a series of ethnic dance performances. Senior students performed traditional dances from various regions of India, including Bharatanatyam, Kathak, Bhangra, and Lavani. The freshers were also invited to join in, creating a vibrant and energetic atmosphere. This activity celebrated the rich cultural heritage of India and fostered a sense of unity and pride among the students.

4. Interactive Games: "Bonding Time"

To break the ice and promote interaction among the freshers and seniors, a variety of interactive games were organized. Activities like "Treasure Hunt," "Musical Chairs," and "Guess the Designer" encouraged teamwork and camaraderie. These games provided a fun and relaxed environment for the students to get to know each other better.
