Event Report: Faculty Development Program

Event Title: Faculty Development Program

Dates: 23rd to 25th December 2021

Venue: Seminar Hall, Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design

Speaker: Mrs. Syed Tuba Tazeen, Assistant Professor, Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed

Introduction:

The Faculty Development Program, conducted from 23rd to 25th December 2021, aimed to enhance faculty skills in student-centered learning, interdisciplinary teaching, and academic mentorship. The workshop was led by Mrs. Syed Tuba Tazeen and provided practical strategies for improving teaching practices and fostering academic collaboration.

Workshop Overview:

- Day 1: Student-Centered Learning (23rd December 2021)

The first day focused on implementing strategies to promote active learning and student participation. Mrs. Tazeen introduced various student-centered teaching methods, including active learning techniques, collaborative group work, and technology integration to engage students effectively. Interactive sessions and role-playing exercises helped participants practice these strategies.

- Day 2: Interdisciplinary Teaching and Research (24th December 2021)

The second day emphasized encouraging collaboration across different academic disciplines. Mrs. Tazeen discussed the benefits of interdisciplinary approaches and provided examples of successful cross-disciplinary projects. Participants engaged in group discussions to brainstorm ideas for fostering collaboration in their own research and teaching activities.

- Day 3: Academic Mentorship and Advising (25th December 2021)

The final day addressed best practices for mentoring students and junior faculty members. Mrs. Tazeen covered effective mentoring techniques, including providing constructive feedback, setting goals, and supporting career development. The session included case studies and group activities to explore real-world mentoring scenarios.

Brief Report

Event Title: Work-Life Balance Training Program

Dates: 24th to 26th February 2022

Venue: Seminar Hall, Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design

Guest Speaker: Dr. Priyanka Rode

Introduction:

The Work-Life Balance Training Program was successfully held at Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design from 24th to 26th February 2022. The workshop aimed to provide participants with essential knowledge and strategies to improve their work-life balance. The program covered three critical topics: Sleep Hygiene and Its Impact on Productivity, Balancing Family Responsibilities and Work, and Digital Detox and Managing Screen Time.

Day 1: Sleep Hygiene and Its Impact on Productivity (24th February 2022)

The first day of the workshop focused on the crucial role of sleep hygiene in enhancing productivity. Dr. Priyanka Rode discussed how poor sleep habits can negatively impact mental and physical health, leading to decreased efficiency and overall well-being. Participants were educated on the importance of maintaining a regular sleep schedule, creating a sleep-friendly environment, and avoiding stimulants before bedtime. Practical tips for improving sleep quality were shared, and participants were encouraged to reflect on their own sleep routines and make necessary adjustments.

Day 2: Balancing Family Responsibilities and Work (25th February 2022)

On the second day, the workshop addressed the challenges of balancing family responsibilities with work commitments. Dr. Priyanka Rode highlighted the importance of communication, time management, and setting priorities to ensure that both work and family life are given appropriate attention. The session included discussions on setting boundaries, delegating tasks, and using support systems effectively. Participants shared their experiences, and the interactive session allowed them to develop personalized strategies to achieve a better balance between their professional and personal lives.

Day 3: Digital Detox and Managing Screen Time (26th February 2022)

The final day of the workshop was dedicated to the concept of digital detox and managing screen time. Dr. Priyanka Rode emphasized the importance of reducing screen time to prevent digital fatigue, improve focus, and enhance mental well-being. Participants were introduced to techniques for limiting screen use, such as scheduling regular breaks, setting screen-free zones, and engaging in offline activities. The session also discussed the impact of social media on mental health and the benefits of disconnecting from digital devices periodically. Participants were encouraged to implement a digital detox plan in their daily lives.

Conclusion:

The Work-Life Balance Training Program was a great success, with active participation from both faculty and students. Dr. Priyanka Rode's expertise and engaging presentation style made the workshop both informative and enjoyable. Participants gained valuable insights into improving their sleep hygiene, balancing family and work responsibilities, and managing screen time effectively.

Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing their appreciation for the practical tips and strategies provided. The college remains committed to supporting the well-being of its community and will continue to organize similar programs in the future.

Brief Report

Event Title: Workshop on Administrative Training Program

Dates: 23rd and 25th June 2022

Venue: Seminar Hall, Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design

Guest Speaker: Mr. Panchal Babbon

Introduction:

The three-day Administrative Training Program was successfully conducted at Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design from 23rd to 25th June 2022. The workshop was organized to enhance the administrative skills of the staff, focusing on the college's policies, data privacy, and conflict resolution techniques. The sessions were led by Mr. Panchal Babbon, who provided in-depth insights and practical knowledge on these critical topics.

Day 1: Introduction to College Policies and Procedures (23rd June 2022)

The first day of the workshop was dedicated to understanding the college's policies and procedures. Mr. Panchal Babbon began by explaining the importance of adhering to institutional policies to maintain consistency and fairness across all administrative functions. He covered various policies, including those related to admissions, examinations, staff conduct, and student affairs. Participants were provided with detailed handouts and engaged in discussions to clarify their understanding of these procedures. The session ensured that all attendees were aligned with the college's operational standards and guidelines.

Day 2: Data Privacy and Confidentiality (24th June 2022)

The second day focused on the crucial topic of data privacy and confidentiality. Mr. Panchal Babbon emphasized the importance of protecting sensitive information within the college environment. He discussed the legal and ethical obligations of maintaining data privacy, particularly in handling student records, financial data, and personal information. Practical exercises were conducted to demonstrate secure data handling practices, including password management, secure file storage, and the proper disposal of confidential documents. This session aimed to instill a strong sense of responsibility among the staff regarding data protection.

Day 3: Conflict Resolution and Problem Solving (25th June 2022)

The final day of the workshop addressed conflict resolution and problem-solving strategies. Mr. Panchal Babbon guided participants through the process of identifying the root causes of conflicts in the workplace and provided effective techniques for resolving them. The session included role-playing scenarios where participants practiced conflict resolution skills, such as active listening, negotiation, and finding mutually agreeable solutions. Additionally, problem-solving methods were discussed, enabling staff to approach challenges in a structured and constructive manner. This session aimed to foster a positive and cooperative work environment within the college.

Conclusion:

The Administrative Training Program was highly successful, with active participation from the attendees. The workshop provided valuable insights and practical skills that will significantly enhance the efficiency and professionalism of the college's administrative functions. The feedback from the participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing a desire for more such training programs in the future.

The knowledge and skills gained from this workshop are expected to contribute to a more organized, secure, and harmonious working environment at Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design.

Brief Report

Event Report: Faculty Development Program

Event Title: Faculty Development Program

Dates: 29th to 31st December 2022

Venue: Seminar Hall, Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion Design

Speaker: Mrs. Syed Tuba Tazeen, Assistant Professor, Tulsi College of Fashion Design, Beed

Introduction:

The Faculty Development Program, held from 29th to 31st December 2022, was designed to enhance faculty skills in managing conflicts, promoting diversity, and addressing ethical issues. Mrs. Syed Tuba Tazeen led the workshop, providing valuable insights and practical approaches to these important topics.

Workshop Overview:

- Day 1: Conflict Resolution and Mediation (29th December 2022)

The first day focused on developing skills for managing conflicts and fostering a positive academic environment. Mrs. Tazeen introduced various conflict resolution techniques and mediation strategies. Participants engaged in role-playing exercises and group discussions to practice resolving conflicts and building a supportive academic community.

- Day 2: Diversity and Inclusion in Higher Education (30th December 2022)

The second day emphasized promoting equity and diversity within the academic community. Mrs. Tazeen discussed the importance of creating an inclusive environment and provided strategies for addressing diversity challenges. Interactive activities and case studies helped participants explore ways to enhance inclusivity in their teaching and institutional practices.

- Day 3: Ethics in Academics (31st December 2022)

The final day addressed ethical issues in teaching, research, and administration. Mrs. Tazeen covered various ethical dilemmas and provided guidelines for maintaining integrity in academic work. The session included discussions on ethical decision-making and best practices for upholding academic standards.
